About the Author...

Ashley Goertemiller holds an education degree from Covenant College. She has taught public elementary school, directed church preschool programs, instructed her own children at home and supported them in school settings.

Being a military Spouse has enabled her to become involved in a variety of ministries. Some of these include serving on the Women's and Children's Ministry boards, directing Vacation Bible School, teaching Sunday School, Children's Choir and Drama classes, and leading Bible studies and praise teams. In addition to her Behavior Booster book series, Ashley has written preschool, home school, and Sunday school curriculum.

In their twelve years of marriage to each other and the military, she and her husband have called TX, NY, NC home and are currently stationed at Fort Campbell, KY with their five children.

What others had to say...

I absolutely loved your ideas! I was able to easily come home and begin applying them immediately! --Johnna

My kids are having a great time finding ways to be positive with one another and after attending the workshop and seeing the book, I'm confident that this is something I can do with my kids and not just leave it up to my wife. --Tony

Having the materials and not just another book to read makes positive parenting go from "someday" to "today". --Liz

We don't really have "behavior issues" with our children yet, but purchased the books out of curiosity. I'm so glad we did! The kids are having a blast with the different Boosters, and we love how they're learning how to apply scripture in such meaningful ways. --Steve & Elizabeth

It's great to have practical ideas my wife and I can apply with our girls. These ideas make it easy for me to be more positive with my children. --Dan

I have been reading through the books nonstop. I am a former teacher myself and love to get my hands on material like this. I really feel I have found something that will improve behavior and definitely focus on the positive. --Kim

I attended your workshop as an anger management requirement in order to get my kids back after being in jail. I didn't grow up in a positive atmosphere and am still learning how to be positive with my kids. Your book and ideas make it easy for someone like me to be encouraging and positive with my children. --anonymous Father

I enjoy how you tie in all these creative ideas with God's word. --Brandy

I have 3 young children and need all the help I can get when it comes to behavior management. I'm also a teacher and see great applications for the classroom. As I flipped through the books I found myself thinking, "Oh, why didn't I think of that!". What a great gift to give someone who works with children. You will not be disappointed! --Jenny

Just wanted to let you know that the workshop was fabulous! The Red Hot Obedience Pot is working very well for my daughter--she has major trouble with obedience. --Emily

These ideas are awesome! My girls are pumped and are searching for ways to be better helpers around the house. It already has made such a difference in the tone of our household! --Cherie

My wife and I were encouraged with the practical aids introduced in the workshop. Behavior Boosters helps provide some of the creative and tangible tools necessary in communicating biblical truths to small children. We are grateful for the creative energy and ideas conveyed in this material as we seek to nurture and lead our children by and to the gospel of Christ. --Pastor Troy

Thank you so much for speaking to our group. You were so encouraging, uplifting, upbeat, and funny... what a great combination! --Sara
