Letters to Santa

Have you been good all year? It won't be long before Old Saint Nick pays a visit to all the good little girls and boys which means it is time to send him your letter with Christmas wishes. Santa's MWR elves would love to help you get that letter to Santa. All Fort Campbell children, who live on or off post, are invited to write a letter to Santa with their Christmas wishes. Santa will send a personal response and a special treat to all children who send Santa a letter. Please make sure to get mom or dad to help write your first and last name and a mailing address, because sometimes the elves forget their glasses and the MWR elves need to clearly read the address and name. Send your stamped letter to "Letters to Santa", P.O. Box 475, Fort Campbell, KY 42223. Please make sure the letter is postmarked by December 12, so that Santa has time to write back. Letters to Santa is sponsored by PeakPromo.biz.

For additional information on Letters to Santa, please contact the Fort Campbell Santa workshop at (270) 798-7535.

Breakfast with Santa at Cole Park Southern Buffet

What better way to celebrate the holidays than to have breakfast with the big guy himself. On Sunday, December 14 from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m., enjoy a breakfast with Santa at Cole Park Community Activities Center. Cole Park's Executive Chef, Bob Howell, will treat patrons to a pancake breakfast, serving sausage, ham, scrambled eggs, juice and all the trimmings. Children will be delighted to have another chance to see Santa. The cost for this event is $3 for children 5 and under and $5 for participants over the age of 5. Tickets can be obtained in advance at Eagle Catering or Southern Buffet, both located in Cole Park Commons. Get your tickets early – this event will surely sell out! For more information please call (270) 798-4610 ext. 119.

December Brunch and a Book at R.F. Sink Library

If drama and suspense is what you seek, R.F. "FAP Class: So you want to date my teenager..."

The teenage years and the dreaded word "date" are the most challenging years and word that are unavoidable for both parents and teens. If you fall into this category, do not panic, ACS Family Advocacy Program is offering a class called "So you want to date my teenager..." on December 4 from 4 p.m. – 6 p.m., at the Family Resource Center. This course is designed to increase parental awareness on the topic of teen dating as well as the challenges and concerns affecting our teenagers today. This is a free course and open to anyone within the Fort Campbell community. Teenagers are welcome to attend with their parents. Childcare for younger siblings is available but space is limited. For more information or to register for childcare please call (270) 798-6383.

December Events at D.W. Recreation Center

With the endless variety of activities from which to choose, such as pool tables, table tennis, computers, video games, a big screen television and musical instruments to play, there is never a dull moment at D.W.

Recreation Center. D.W. Recreation Center is your one stop entertainment center!

For December, D.W. Recreation Center has planned a month filled with exciting events.

What better way to celebrate the holidays than to have brunch with the big guy himself. On Saturday, December 6 at 10 a.m., enjoy a pizza brunch with Santa at D.W Recreation Center. Attendees will also have the opportunity to take pictures with Santa. Be sure to bring your camera or we will take a Polaroid for a small extra charge. Other activities include a coloring contest and door prizes for all to enjoy. Cost to attend this event is $3 for ages 12 and under and $5 for ages over 12, if tickets are purchased by 12noon on December 4. Prices for tickets purchased after December 4 at noon are $5 for 12 and under and $7 for participants over 12. All tickets will be $10 the day of the event and admittance will depend on availability.

Get ready to flip, block and backspin. On December 7, D.W. Rec. will host a Post Wide Table Tennis Tournament from 2 p.m. to completion. This tournament is open to all MWR patrons and trophies will be awarded to the top three contestants in several skill levels. Children have an opportunity to receive a phone call from Santa. If you would like your child to receive a call from Santa, call D.W. Recreation Center, answer a few simple questions about your child and what he/she would like for Christmas, choose one of the three following dates, December 14, 20 or 21, and the recreation center will make arrangements for Santa to call your child on your chosen day between the hours of 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. On Sunday, December 28, D.W. Rec. is hosting White Elephant Bingo. Come play bingo for white elephant prizes, which are good items you may not want but someone else could use. All ages are welcome with those under 18 accompanied by a parent at all times. Contact D.W Rec. about donating white elephant items for this event.

D.W. Recreation Center will be OPEN from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. Christmas Day, December 25. A variety of treats will be available for patrons throughout the afternoon.

For additional information on December events at D.W. Recreation Center, please call (270) 798-7391.

CYS Reservation Policy for "Friday Night Out" and "Super Saturday"

Child and Youth Services (CYS) announce their new reservation policy for deployment child care programs "Friday Night Out" and "Super Saturday" This policy went into effect on January 1, 2008. Family Members of deployed Soldiers who plan to utilize Friday Night Out and Super Saturday free child care must make their reservations by 5 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the event date. This improvement is to ensure that the staffing ratios of caregivers to children are appropriate to accommodate the safety of your little ones, and to provide the best possible programs and activities for the children to enjoy. Children must be registered with CYS Central Enrollment to participate in these programs.

An MWR Spouse Discount Card is also required to use Friday Night Out and Super Saturday child care. This card is only for Spouses of Soldiers who are presently deployed. Call (270) 798-7535 for more information about the MWR Spouse Discount Card. Call CYS at (270)798-7993 to make reservations or for more information about deployment child care.

Sink Library has Free Books for Soldiers

Sometimes a good book is the best way to wind down at the end of a stressful day or pass the time during a long wait. While some may prefer a good love story, others need a comedy or even some science fiction to help them escape the daily grind. Starting now, the R.F. Sink Library is offering free books for Soldiers who are deployed or deploying. These brand new paperback books are organized into Book Kits and will be given out to any Unit with Soldiers deploying or already deployed. These kits contain an assortment of fiction and non fiction books. To get these free book kits for your Unit, send a Unit representative to the R. F. Sink Library at 38 Screaming Eagle Boulevard and the friendly staff will help load the appropriate number of kits into your vehicle. Units who are already deployed can also take advantage of this great program by sending an email to Karen.murphy@us.army.mil and putting "book kit request" in the subject line.

For additional information on the Book Kit Program, contact the R.F. Sink Library at (270)798-4827.

Children's Story Time and Activity Hour

Join R.F. Sink Memorial Library every Thursday for Children's Story Time and Activity Hour. Each week there is a new story to spark young imaginations with Story Time. Children may attend the morning session from 10:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. or wait until the afternoon session from 1:30 p.m. to 2 p.m. Story time is followed by Activity Hour where children can participate in a new craft project each week. For more information, please call (270)956-3348 or visit the R.F. Sink Library at 38 Screaming Eagle Blvd.
